Purified Her Blood.

"I was tired and drowsy and little red pimples appeared on my limbs and body. My daughter advised me to consult a physician and I did so. He prescribed for me and I was under his care for three weeks and the blotches became larger sores. I suffered also with pains which he pronounced to be muscular rheumatism. I was finally advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I did so. I began to feel better after a few days and the sores began to dry up and after a while they entirely disappeared and the rheumatic pains left my body and I was able to be around again." Mrs. Hannah Brown, 34 Clinton St., Newark, N. J.

Saturday Half Holiday

During July and August the Newark Electric will close Saturday at 1 P. M., remaining open on the evening previous.

CYCLERS' COLUMN.

L. A. W. Items and Wheeling Gossip

All communications for this column that are received by the Cycle Editor before Tuesday noon will receive prompt attention for current issue.
